

The Breeze Kings

Ten Times Voted Best Blues Band in Atlanta

This is a blues band, but not just another blues band. This isn't sit in the corner and cry music. This is feel good music. This is celebration music. This is get up and dance music!

The Breeze Kings formed out of a real love for 50's & 60's era blues and soul music. The spark was there and word spread fast. Today, the band keeps a full schedule of shows all over the eastern USA and has completed four European tours. Featuring complex guitar parts, explosive harmonica, soulful vocals and super groovy rhythms, their exciting and authentic blend of blues, soul and early rock n roll catches wide attention. Show after show, their charismatic energy wins over new fans while their dedication to time honored traditions earns the respect and admiration of music purists. They have played with some big names, performed live on television, and their music is enjoyed worldwide on radio and online via iTunes, Pandora, Youtube and Spotify. It's no wonder the Breeze Kings have won Creative Loafing's annual Best Blues Band in Atlanta award an amazing TEN TIMES !

The Breeze Kings have released four CD's on Atlanta's Veritone Records label. With each CD comes a blend of classic covers and creative original songs showcasing the band's roots and its talent. Critics and audiences have received all four CD's very well with glowing reviews and radio play from all over the globe.

In addition to numerous club and festival performances, The Breeze Kings are in high demand for private occasions. The band's distinct sound, personality and professionalism are exactly what clients want for a unique and memorable party, wedding or corporate event.

There are lots of bands, but not many like The Breeze Kings, and that's why they are one of Atlanta's, and the South's, most popular and sought after bands.

The Breeze Kings are:
Carlos "Breeze" Capote – vocals & harmonica, Lee Griffin – guitar
Gregg Shapiro – bass, Trevor Roberts – drums

"One of Atlanta's most celebrated touring groups of any musical genre."
- Southeast Performer Magazine

"One of the most reliable nights of entertainment in town is the cool blast of weekly blues from one of Atlanta's most reliably swinging quartets."
- Shane Harrison, AJC - Access Atlanta

"There is a vibrant tone to their proceedings. One senses their respect for the purer aspects of the Blues."
- Gary W. Miller, BluesWax Magazine

"BK define themselves by the blues they choose and the way they play it -- authentic, pre-rock excavations, mostly from '50s and '60s icons and lesser-knowns, delivered with a rowdy vigor that's true to the form."
- Bryan Powell, Creative Loafing (Atlanta)

"The Breeze Kings have conquered Atlanta with a jumping mix of styles that ranges from sweet home Chicago electric blues to sizzling Texas blues to raw-and-ready Mississippi Delta and Piedmont blues. The music swings, shuffles and shakes a mean tailfeather."
- Kati Schardl, Tallahassee Democrat

